Reports of the President, Four Vice Presidents, Secretary, and Treasurer-Ameadments to the Constitution Adopted-Mr. W. B. Matthews Chosen President.

Beginning of the first of January and conlinning for one year the affairs of the District Epworth League will be under the management of a new board of officers, who were elected at the annual convention of the League held last night in Wesley Chapel,

The ne president, Mr. W. B. Matthews, is well-known worker in local young people's societies, and the other officers are equally efficient Christian workers. Reports of the past year's work, showing the league; to be in a prosperous condition, were read to the convention and several important amend-ments to the constitution adopted. About 200 desegates were present from the twenty-six chapters in the District.

Before the regular opening of the conven-tion Mr. Main, president of the Wester Chapel Chapter, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the home chapter, and presented President Sites with a gavel made of wood brought from Mount Version. In a brief response on behalf of the league Mr. Sites accepted the emblem of authority.

emblem of authority.

In his opening address President Sites congratulated the Leaguers on the large representation of the chapters, and thou the reports of officers were called for. That of the president was read by the retiring executive. The work of the League is mainly of a stimu-lating character, we said, and its aim has been to secure co-operation by board of control sessions and big mass-meetings. The interest of the cause of missions has been prescribed with much earnestness, and he hoped the local League would prove to be the canner League in their contributions to the Thanks-giving missionary fund.

The report went on to speak of the work of the departments of spiritual work and mercy and help, which has been particularly vicorous and squeessful, and in conclusion said: "The spirit which has characterized the work has been one of co-operation, deep consecra-tion and a higher impulse to serve our Lord and Master. I think we can note a whole-hearted real to make life a success, to live in earnest, to live to make our own church a all other churches that will help us exalt our power in the land, while joining hands with all other churches that will help us exalt our Christ."

Beports were also received from First Vice President James E. Pugh, Second Vice President Miss Effic Perry, Third Vice President Harry O. Hine, read by Miss Dumana Mitchell, These reports gave detailed statements of the work of the several departments.

Secretary Frank T. Israel next read his annual report, which was aconcise review of the year's labors. The report showed that I i board of control and League meetings were held with an average attendance at the mass meetings of foot. Thirty-seven delegates were sent to the Baltimore conference convention and thirty-three to the fourth general Listrict convention. Eight new chapters have been organized since the last convention, making a lotal of twenty-six chapters, with atotal membership of 2,304, a gain of 155 mem ers. There are now littern james enapters, with ear mem-bers, a net gain in membership of $11, From the reports of chapters received it is shown that 1,141 religious services have been shown that 1,141 religious services have been held, with an average weekly attendance of 1850. There have also been held 120 social meetings, with an average attendance of 707; 182 literary meetings, with an average attendance of 702; 215 business meetings, with an average attendance of 408, and 150 special services. More than 500 have signed the pledge, 7 have been converted, 2,5% visits made to the sick, and 2600 worth of provisions have been distributed to the poor.

The report of the treasurer, Miss A. K. Roller, showed the receipts to have been $317 and a small cash bulance.

and a small cash balance.

The amendments to the constitution, which were approved at the last meeting of the board of control, were then presented to the onvention and adopted.

The annual election of officers being the next business, Mr. William B. Matthews, of Foundry, was chosen president by acclaima-tion. The other officers elected were Mr. John S. Barker, of Wesley, first vice-president; second vice-president, Miss Fannie Mecks, of second vice-president, Miss Fanne Meeks, of McKendroe: third vice-president, Mr. Harry D. Hine, of Waugh; fourth vice-president, Mrs. J. I. Mickie, of Hamiline: secretary, Mr. Frink T. Israel, of McKendree: assistant sec-retary, Mr. H. A. Davis, of Epworth Church, Scoath, Miss Annie K. Holler, of the Fifteenth Street Church, treasurer, and Mr. H. B. Leech, of the North Capitol Street Church, Carried League Junior, superintendent.

Leech, of the North Capitol Street Church, District League Junior, superintendent, It was long after 10 o'clock when the convention decided to hear the report of the committee appointed to present resolutions looking to the establishment of a uniform date for the election of officers of the several ocal chapters. Chairman James A. Edgar read the resolutions providing for the election of all officers in the several chapters during the mouth of January.

The question was vigorously discussed for nearly an hour, and finally the original reso-

We think we make the cracks showing of the city when it comes to ROCKERS.

Not a taste we can't suit-not a purse, no matter how small, but it possesses a Rocker-buying possibility

$1.95 ROCKER is an instance of how small prices are here. 3 styles of framing, different patterned upholstering, high backs-spring seats. You'll spend $3 elsewhere to get as good a quality. $3.75 Secures a selected polished Birch—of quaint, graceful design-curved comfortable arms, wide odd-shaped headpanel to back-has a "cobbler

Lots more we might mention, but lack of space forbids--best drop in to-day or any day and see what they're seat. Well-made and finished.
